

‘Awakening in Life’

Retreat with Aziza Scott
November 20-22, 2009
The Hermitage
Three Rivers, Michigan

“The sun, air, water and fertile soil are necessary for the rose to bloom; intelligence, inspiration, love, a wide outlook and guidance are required for the soul to unfold” Hazrat Inayat Khan

This is a 3 day retreat focused on the emerging spiritual consciousness of our time: one of universality and global awareness in which the unfoldment of the individual is embraced in light of the struggle of life. The spiritual retreat is an answer to the call of the soul. It is an opportunity to experience the joy, peace, and understanding that comes from turning within, cleansing the heart and mind, soaring on the wings of spirit, and bringing into life a new dispensation.

Aziza structures the retreat so participants can become deeply immersed in the heart and spirit of the meditation practices. She establishes an atmosphere of sacredness and purposefulness that is healing and energizing to the participants. Her humor and common sense provide a no-nonsense approach to spirituality that helps in personal problem solving, inner realization, and spiritual growth. This retreat is a unique opportunity and is appropriate for those new to, or those experienced with, the retreat process, as well as those who are currently guiding others.

Aziza Scott, M.Ed. has been a student of the retreat process for over 30 years and worked closely with Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan. She is currently the Head of the Esoteric School for the Sufi Order International and teaches at the Suluk Academy at the Abode with Pir Zia Inayat Khan. She has many years of experience leading individual and group retreats in the United States, Europe and India.

This year we will begin our silent retreat at The Hermitage at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, November 20th and end late morning on Sunday, November 22nd. Accommodations will be at The Hermitage and will include a private cabin or room (w/shared bathroom), all linens and meals. Meals will be vegetarian, shared in silence.

The cost for the Retreat and 2 nights lodging including meals is $335 ($295 for advanced registration by Oct. 28, 2009). Space is limited so early registration is recommended. For more information, call Nur at 269-373-5671 after 9/20/09.
